

THE OHIO STAR.

Rev. A. RANK, the venerable Pastor of the Congregational Church of Canfield, preached in the Free Church in this village, on Sabbath last. His sermon in the afternoon, on the duties and responsibilities of Mothers, was one of the most valuable and impressive discourses to which we have ever listened.

The individuals burnt out by the late fire, have disposed of themselves for the present, as follows:

H. L. & R. Day
Have their stock of goods for the present in Collins Hall, where their old friends and customers can find them.

E. T. Richardson,
Has opened his Hardware Store in Allen's Block.

Rowell & Brother,
Have opened business in S. Day's Store.

J. Alcorn,
Has opened his Clothing Store two doors west of Hall's Book Store.

Brown & Harburt
Have opened their Boot and Shoe Store in a small building opposite the Prentiss House.

H. A. Swift's,
Insurance office is over H. E. Campbell's Store.

J. Gilles,
Will open his Boot and Shoe Store in a few days, four doors west of Hall's Book Store.

Loomis & Dickinson,
Have opened in Campbell's Block.

Scintill
Printing Office is located in "Marble Row," (a grade position) on Chestnut Street, and will soon be again in full blast. Friend Harris exhibits an enterprise and energy which is bound to succeed. We cordially wish him all business prosperity.

Border Meetings.
Meetings will be held as follows:
Parkman, Oct. 4, Judge Spalding, R. F. Paine, will speak at 2 o'clock P. M.
Auburn Corner, Oct. 5, Judge Spalding, R. F. Paine will speak at 2 o'clock P. M.
Bainbridge Center, Oct. 5, Judge Spalding and R. F. Paine will speak at 2 o'clock P. M.
The foregoing meetings being upon the borders of Portage County, will afford the citizens of this county, residing in the vicinity, an excellent opportunity to hear the able speakers named—an opportunity which we hope and trust will be improved.

Meetings in Palmyra.
John C. Vaughan and O. P. Brown, will speak in Palmyra on Friday afternoon, Oct. 8th.

John C. Vaughan.
This gentleman spoke in the Free Church in this village on Monday evening last in a well filled house, though but an hour or two's notice had been given. Mr. Vaughan is a fervid, eloquent and winning speaker, and his face and legs are equal to his eloquence. The ladies among our friends will have found for thought and reflection—and as they reflect they will not lose sight of the fact that the power of the appeals of the gifted speaker, the able and devoted champion of freedom and free labor.

Meetings last week.
The Free Democratic meetings held in this County last week were good ones, generally well attended, audiences attentive, speaking impressive, impression good.

H. B. Spelman spoke in Charleston, Freedom, Windham and Edinburgh. We hear the best account of his meetings. He was everywhere well received, and spoke ably.

Last Friday evening H. A. Swift and A. Topping had a good meeting at the center of Napoleon. They spoke to great acceptance to earnest, candid, and enquiring men, and a good impulse was given to the cause.

Last Saturday night there was a very fair and encouraging meeting in Shalersville. O. P. Brown and H. A. Hall, acquitted themselves well as they always do. The germ of freedom and true democracy is alive in Shalersville, and "freedom" is peacefully tolerated in that goodly town.

Notices of the Press.
We place the following on record as "Keep-wakes" that in after time we may remember the measure of courtesy extended to our editorial brethren, who will please accept our thanks for their kind and good wishes:

Ohio Star.—Last week, the Ohio Star came out enlarged, and giving other evidence of a substantial growth. We rejoice in the property. It is worthy of it. Whether we regard the new work of the paper as the best work of the past, or that we regard it as among our best papers, let it be well supported. Friend Hall has done a good work in Ohio, and we want good men to proclaim their knowledge of the fact, by giving him a hearty and substantial sympathy. So stick by the Star and its noble editor.—True Democrat.

Enlarged.—Our Free Soil friend HALL, has come out of the Ravenshoe fire purified and enlarged. HALL is a genuine Free Soiler, an enterprising publisher and a blessed clever fellow.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Our neighbor of the Star has enlarged and otherwise improved his paper. It is now one of the largest class papers, and well conducted both in the editorial and mechanical departments.—Portage Sentinel.

Enlargement.—Neighbor Hall of the Star, has enlarged and otherwise improved his paper.—Portage Whig.

Onward the Star of Progress takes its way.—The Ohio Star, one of the oldest and one of the best papers in Northern Ohio, comes to hand greatly enlarged and improved. Next to my dear self, there is no man whom I more sincerely wish continued and increased prosperity than to friend Hall, its editor. May he receive it, and long live to enjoy it.—Cleveland Commercial.

The Ohio Star is enlarged, and looks well and thrifty. Success to you, friend Hall. By the way—the editor notices the fact, that instead of refusing to publish the appeal of the independent Congressional candidate, we had it in the first paper after it was written.—Akron Standard.

The Ohio Star of Ravenshoe, is enlarged, and printed on new type.—Cleveland Herald.

Ravenshoe Star.—We are glad to see this excellent paper prospering. It appears enlarged and improved.—Anti Slavery Bugle.

On Friday night last a small building, used as a grocery, standing on the bank of the canal at Campbell's, was burned to the ground. Nothing of any consequence was saved. The amount of property destroyed we did not learn. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Dr. Tabbs will be at the Prentiss House to-day and to-morrow.

From the National Era.
Statement of Facts, &c.
EVANSVILLE, IND., May 25, 1852.

A colored man of the name of Jack May, in the year 1848, was a slave in the State of Kentucky. Having been liberated by the last will and testament of his master, who died during that year, he came to this State, and obtained the necessary certificates duly authenticated, and in 1849 he came to this city, and became a citizen of Indiana. The certification of his freedom and registration were duly recorded in the proper office of this county.

Soon afterwards he sent for his family, a wife (a free woman) and one infant child. He was more industrious and frugal than the people of his color and class in the free States. His wife, an intelligent Christian woman, was a pattern of industry and economy, for people in his condition in life.

Jack had been a faithful servant up to the time of his liberation, and at the age of twenty-eight, with freedom, in a free State, the prospect of a long life of happiness for him and his wife was exceedingly cheering.

Soon after the passage of the Fugitive Slave Law in 1850, Jack heard rumors through his friends, (for he had friends in Kentucky) that the heirs of his former master, through some quibble of the law of that State, intended to claim a slave and take him back again into bondage. He consulted with his acquaintances here about his safety. He had nothing to fear from a full and fair investigation and just application of the law to the facts of his case; yet from the spirit engendered by that law, and the many outrages perpetrated, even when its forms are attempted to be followed, he apprehended danger.

Finally, the rumors and his apprehensions were verified by the following advertisement in the Evansville Daily Journal, by which the attempt was made to set the bloodhounds upon his track, for the purpose of reducing him again to servitude:

"One Hundred Dollars Reward.—A tall yellow negro, about twenty-seven years of age, has a scar over one eyebrow, and a lively looking man, named Jack May, ran off from Mr. Jack May, in Logan county, Kentucky, about two years ago. He has been in Evansville since, firing for a steam mill, and may now be somewhere in this vicinity. The above reward will be paid for his apprehension and delivery at Eldridge, Kentucky, or for his security at any place where he may be obtained by his owner. Any information may be sent to J. T. Aiken."

But, fortunately, before the advertisement appeared, Jack had gone. He was compelled to flee in flight, leaving his wife and child behind to their beds by sickness, with scanty means, under the care of a hired nurse. I was sent for in the night, to attend at the bedside of the dying wife, to make two requests—first, that I would have her child sent to her mother; and second, that I would see her decently buried. I at once assured her that I would comply.

The faithful wife, smitten down by grief, dying in her dear home, with no friend on earth to console and care for her in her dying hours but the hired nurse—literally bled to death, at the same time a free citizen of a free State, a fugitive and an exile from the "Free Republic of the West," and a man of color, who had been sold into slavery by the same hands that were now endeavoring to sell him into slavery.

But in that chamber of death there was one who could console and comfort all who trust in Him—the Beloved One, dear old Christian heart. He spoke words of consolation, such as mortal lips never uttered. She died in the triumphs of the Christian faith! "Oh," said she, "I am going else home, safe home!" and in a few hours expired. The child died a few days afterwards, and joined the mother in the spirit world.

Free Democratic Meetings.
Meetings will be held, and will be addressed by the individuals designated, as follows:
Aurora.—Sept. 20, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler Oct. 1, O. P. Brown, I. Brynton.
Atwater.—Sept. 20, I. Brynton, O. P. Brown; Oct. 4, T. Earl, W. Barr.
Brimfield.—Sept. 27, O. P. Brown, H. A. Topping; Oct. 9, H. A. Hall, J. W. Tyler.
Charlestown.—Sept. 21, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 6, Albert Austin, H. A. Swift.
Deerfield.—Sept. 30, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard; Oct. 11, T. Earl, H. L. Carter.
Edinburgh.—Sept. 24, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler.
Franklin.—Sept. 29, O. Blake, T. W. Browning; Oct. 6, H. A. Hall, I. Brynton.
Freedom.—Sept. 20, W. Barr, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 8, H. A. Swift, I. Brynton.
Hiram.—Sept. 28, A. Topping, H. A. Hall; Oct. 11, J. K. Pickett, O. Blake.
Mouton.—Sept. 24, H. R. P. Spalding; Oct. 9, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty.
Nelson.—Sept. 24, H. H. Willard, H. A. Swift; Oct. 8, L. C. Tod.
Palmyra.—Sept. 18, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty; Oct. 4, H. L. Carter, T. W. Browning.
McIntoshburgh.—Sept. 22, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard.
Newport.—Oct. 8, H. A. Hall, Albert Austin.
Gardetsville.—Sept. 27, I. Brynton, A. Topping; Oct. 7, T. Earl, H. A. Swift.
Randolph.—Sept. 28, H. L. Carter, O. Blake; Oct. 8, T. W. Browning, A. Topping.
Rootstown.—Sept. 29, Albert Austin, J. W. Tyler; Oct. 5, H. H. Willard, H. S. Doty.
Shalersville.—Sept. 25, O. P. Brown, H. A. Hall; Oct. 9, I. Brynton, Albert Austin.
Mogadore.—Sept. 24, O. Blake, H. L. Carter.
Streetsborough.—Sept. 28, T. Earl, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 11, O. P. Brown, H. A. Swift.
Windham.—Sept. 23, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, O. P. Brown, J. K. Pickett.

THE LADIES ARE INVITED TO ATTEND.
The meetings will commence at 7 o'clock P. M. The speakers named will meet their appointments or secure substitutes.

The Township Executive Committee men, and the friends of the cause, should see to it that none of these meetings are failures for want of notice and due preparation. Handbills, should in all cases be posted up three or four days before each meeting. Blank Handbills, to be filled up for each township, are printed and may be obtained at this office. Friends in the townships should be careful to send or call for them, as we cannot always find opportunity to send them.

Come, friends, let there be no lukewarmness or indifference. Let us be willing to make a little sacrifice of ease and convenience, and for once, at least, work with a will. The good cause deserves, indeed, demands of us all, an unrestrained, unflinching exertion.

Found.
A Comforter and pair of Gloves. Enquire at this office.

On Friday night last a small building, used as a grocery, standing on the bank of the canal at Campbell's, was burned to the ground. Nothing of any consequence was saved. The amount of property destroyed we did not learn. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Dr. Tabbs will be at the Prentiss House to-day and to-morrow.

From the National Era.
Statement of Facts, &c.
EVANSVILLE, IND., May 25, 1852.

A colored man of the name of Jack May, in the year 1848, was a slave in the State of Kentucky. Having been liberated by the last will and testament of his master, who died during that year, he came to this State, and obtained the necessary certificates duly authenticated, and in 1849 he came to this city, and became a citizen of Indiana. The certification of his freedom and registration were duly recorded in the proper office of this county.

Soon afterwards he sent for his family, a wife (a free woman) and one infant child. He was more industrious and frugal than the people of his color and class in the free States. His wife, an intelligent Christian woman, was a pattern of industry and economy, for people in his condition in life.

Jack had been a faithful servant up to the time of his liberation, and at the age of twenty-eight, with freedom, in a free State, the prospect of a long life of happiness for him and his wife was exceedingly cheering.

Soon after the passage of the Fugitive Slave Law in 1850, Jack heard rumors through his friends, (for he had friends in Kentucky) that the heirs of his former master, through some quibble of the law of that State, intended to claim a slave and take him back again into bondage. He consulted with his acquaintances here about his safety. He had nothing to fear from a full and fair investigation and just application of the law to the facts of his case; yet from the spirit engendered by that law, and the many outrages perpetrated, even when its forms are attempted to be followed, he apprehended danger.

Finally, the rumors and his apprehensions were verified by the following advertisement in the Evansville Daily Journal, by which the attempt was made to set the bloodhounds upon his track, for the purpose of reducing him again to servitude:

"One Hundred Dollars Reward.—A tall yellow negro, about twenty-seven years of age, has a scar over one eyebrow, and a lively looking man, named Jack May, ran off from Mr. Jack May, in Logan county, Kentucky, about two years ago. He has been in Evansville since, firing for a steam mill, and may now be somewhere in this vicinity. The above reward will be paid for his apprehension and delivery at Eldridge, Kentucky, or for his security at any place where he may be obtained by his owner. Any information may be sent to J. T. Aiken."

But, fortunately, before the advertisement appeared, Jack had gone. He was compelled to flee in flight, leaving his wife and child behind to their beds by sickness, with scanty means, under the care of a hired nurse. I was sent for in the night, to attend at the bedside of the dying wife, to make two requests—first, that I would have her child sent to her mother; and second, that I would see her decently buried. I at once assured her that I would comply.

The faithful wife, smitten down by grief, dying in her dear home, with no friend on earth to console and care for her in her dying hours but the hired nurse—literally bled to death, at the same time a free citizen of a free State, a fugitive and an exile from the "Free Republic of the West," and a man of color, who had been sold into slavery by the same hands that were now endeavoring to sell him into slavery.

But in that chamber of death there was one who could console and comfort all who trust in Him—the Beloved One, dear old Christian heart. He spoke words of consolation, such as mortal lips never uttered. She died in the triumphs of the Christian faith! "Oh," said she, "I am going else home, safe home!" and in a few hours expired. The child died a few days afterwards, and joined the mother in the spirit world.

Free Democratic Meetings.
Meetings will be held, and will be addressed by the individuals designated, as follows:
Aurora.—Sept. 20, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler Oct. 1, O. P. Brown, I. Brynton.
Atwater.—Sept. 20, I. Brynton, O. P. Brown; Oct. 4, T. Earl, W. Barr.
Brimfield.—Sept. 27, O. P. Brown, H. A. Topping; Oct. 9, H. A. Hall, J. W. Tyler.
Charlestown.—Sept. 21, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 6, Albert Austin, H. A. Swift.
Deerfield.—Sept. 30, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard; Oct. 11, T. Earl, H. L. Carter.
Edinburgh.—Sept. 24, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler.
Franklin.—Sept. 29, O. Blake, T. W. Browning; Oct. 6, H. A. Hall, I. Brynton.
Freedom.—Sept. 20, W. Barr, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 8, H. A. Swift, I. Brynton.
Hiram.—Sept. 28, A. Topping, H. A. Hall; Oct. 11, J. K. Pickett, O. Blake.
Mouton.—Sept. 24, H. R. P. Spalding; Oct. 9, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty.
Nelson.—Sept. 24, H. H. Willard, H. A. Swift; Oct. 8, L. C. Tod.
Palmyra.—Sept. 18, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty; Oct. 4, H. L. Carter, T. W. Browning.
McIntoshburgh.—Sept. 22, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard.
Newport.—Oct. 8, H. A. Hall, Albert Austin.
Gardetsville.—Sept. 27, I. Brynton, A. Topping; Oct. 7, T. Earl, H. A. Swift.
Randolph.—Sept. 28, H. L. Carter, O. Blake; Oct. 8, T. W. Browning, A. Topping.
Rootstown.—Sept. 29, Albert Austin, J. W. Tyler; Oct. 5, H. H. Willard, H. S. Doty.
Shalersville.—Sept. 25, O. P. Brown, H. A. Hall; Oct. 9, I. Brynton, Albert Austin.
Mogadore.—Sept. 24, O. Blake, H. L. Carter.
Streetsborough.—Sept. 28, T. Earl, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 11, O. P. Brown, H. A. Swift.
Windham.—Sept. 23, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, O. P. Brown, J. K. Pickett.

THE LADIES ARE INVITED TO ATTEND.
The meetings will commence at 7 o'clock P. M. The speakers named will meet their appointments or secure substitutes.

The Township Executive Committee men, and the friends of the cause, should see to it that none of these meetings are failures for want of notice and due preparation. Handbills, should in all cases be posted up three or four days before each meeting. Blank Handbills, to be filled up for each township, are printed and may be obtained at this office. Friends in the townships should be careful to send or call for them, as we cannot always find opportunity to send them.

Come, friends, let there be no lukewarmness or indifference. Let us be willing to make a little sacrifice of ease and convenience, and for once, at least, work with a will. The good cause deserves, indeed, demands of us all, an unrestrained, unflinching exertion.

Found.
A Comforter and pair of Gloves. Enquire at this office.

On Friday night last a small building, used as a grocery, standing on the bank of the canal at Campbell's, was burned to the ground. Nothing of any consequence was saved. The amount of property destroyed we did not learn. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Dr. Tabbs will be at the Prentiss House to-day and to-morrow.

From the National Era.
Statement of Facts, &c.
EVANSVILLE, IND., May 25, 1852.

A colored man of the name of Jack May, in the year 1848, was a slave in the State of Kentucky. Having been liberated by the last will and testament of his master, who died during that year, he came to this State, and obtained the necessary certificates duly authenticated, and in 1849 he came to this city, and became a citizen of Indiana. The certification of his freedom and registration were duly recorded in the proper office of this county.

Soon afterwards he sent for his family, a wife (a free woman) and one infant child. He was more industrious and frugal than the people of his color and class in the free States. His wife, an intelligent Christian woman, was a pattern of industry and economy, for people in his condition in life.

Jack had been a faithful servant up to the time of his liberation, and at the age of twenty-eight, with freedom, in a free State, the prospect of a long life of happiness for him and his wife was exceedingly cheering.

Soon after the passage of the Fugitive Slave Law in 1850, Jack heard rumors through his friends, (for he had friends in Kentucky) that the heirs of his former master, through some quibble of the law of that State, intended to claim a slave and take him back again into bondage. He consulted with his acquaintances here about his safety. He had nothing to fear from a full and fair investigation and just application of the law to the facts of his case; yet from the spirit engendered by that law, and the many outrages perpetrated, even when its forms are attempted to be followed, he apprehended danger.

Finally, the rumors and his apprehensions were verified by the following advertisement in the Evansville Daily Journal, by which the attempt was made to set the bloodhounds upon his track, for the purpose of reducing him again to servitude:

"One Hundred Dollars Reward.—A tall yellow negro, about twenty-seven years of age, has a scar over one eyebrow, and a lively looking man, named Jack May, ran off from Mr. Jack May, in Logan county, Kentucky, about two years ago. He has been in Evansville since, firing for a steam mill, and may now be somewhere in this vicinity. The above reward will be paid for his apprehension and delivery at Eldridge, Kentucky, or for his security at any place where he may be obtained by his owner. Any information may be sent to J. T. Aiken."

But, fortunately, before the advertisement appeared, Jack had gone. He was compelled to flee in flight, leaving his wife and child behind to their beds by sickness, with scanty means, under the care of a hired nurse. I was sent for in the night, to attend at the bedside of the dying wife, to make two requests—first, that I would have her child sent to her mother; and second, that I would see her decently buried. I at once assured her that I would comply.

The faithful wife, smitten down by grief, dying in her dear home, with no friend on earth to console and care for her in her dying hours but the hired nurse—literally bled to death, at the same time a free citizen of a free State, a fugitive and an exile from the "Free Republic of the West," and a man of color, who had been sold into slavery by the same hands that were now endeavoring to sell him into slavery.

But in that chamber of death there was one who could console and comfort all who trust in Him—the Beloved One, dear old Christian heart. He spoke words of consolation, such as mortal lips never uttered. She died in the triumphs of the Christian faith! "Oh," said she, "I am going else home, safe home!" and in a few hours expired. The child died a few days afterwards, and joined the mother in the spirit world.

Free Democratic Meetings.
Meetings will be held, and will be addressed by the individuals designated, as follows:
Aurora.—Sept. 20, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler Oct. 1, O. P. Brown, I. Brynton.
Atwater.—Sept. 20, I. Brynton, O. P. Brown; Oct. 4, T. Earl, W. Barr.
Brimfield.—Sept. 27, O. P. Brown, H. A. Topping; Oct. 9, H. A. Hall, J. W. Tyler.
Charlestown.—Sept. 21, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 6, Albert Austin, H. A. Swift.
Deerfield.—Sept. 30, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard; Oct. 11, T. Earl, H. L. Carter.
Edinburgh.—Sept. 24, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler.
Franklin.—Sept. 29, O. Blake, T. W. Browning; Oct. 6, H. A. Hall, I. Brynton.
Freedom.—Sept. 20, W. Barr, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 8, H. A. Swift, I. Brynton.
Hiram.—Sept. 28, A. Topping, H. A. Hall; Oct. 11, J. K. Pickett, O. Blake.
Mouton.—Sept. 24, H. R. P. Spalding; Oct. 9, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty.
Nelson.—Sept. 24, H. H. Willard, H. A. Swift; Oct. 8, L. C. Tod.
Palmyra.—Sept. 18, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty; Oct. 4, H. L. Carter, T. W. Browning.
McIntoshburgh.—Sept. 22, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard.
Newport.—Oct. 8, H. A. Hall, Albert Austin.
Gardetsville.—Sept. 27, I. Brynton, A. Topping; Oct. 7, T. Earl, H. A. Swift.
Randolph.—Sept. 28, H. L. Carter, O. Blake; Oct. 8, T. W. Browning, A. Topping.
Rootstown.—Sept. 29, Albert Austin, J. W. Tyler; Oct. 5, H. H. Willard, H. S. Doty.
Shalersville.—Sept. 25, O. P. Brown, H. A. Hall; Oct. 9, I. Brynton, Albert Austin.
Mogadore.—Sept. 24, O. Blake, H. L. Carter.
Streetsborough.—Sept. 28, T. Earl, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 11, O. P. Brown, H. A. Swift.
Windham.—Sept. 23, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, O. P. Brown, J. K. Pickett.

THE LADIES ARE INVITED TO ATTEND.
The meetings will commence at 7 o'clock P. M. The speakers named will meet their appointments or secure substitutes.

The Township Executive Committee men, and the friends of the cause, should see to it that none of these meetings are failures for want of notice and due preparation. Handbills, should in all cases be posted up three or four days before each meeting. Blank Handbills, to be filled up for each township, are printed and may be obtained at this office. Friends in the townships should be careful to send or call for them, as we cannot always find opportunity to send them.

Come, friends, let there be no lukewarmness or indifference. Let us be willing to make a little sacrifice of ease and convenience, and for once, at least, work with a will. The good cause deserves, indeed, demands of us all, an unrestrained, unflinching exertion.

Found.
A Comforter and pair of Gloves. Enquire at this office.

On Friday night last a small building, used as a grocery, standing on the bank of the canal at Campbell's, was burned to the ground. Nothing of any consequence was saved. The amount of property destroyed we did not learn. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Dr. Tabbs will be at the Prentiss House to-day and to-morrow.

From the National Era.
Statement of Facts, &c.
EVANSVILLE, IND., May 25, 1852.

A colored man of the name of Jack May, in the year 1848, was a slave in the State of Kentucky. Having been liberated by the last will and testament of his master, who died during that year, he came to this State, and obtained the necessary certificates duly authenticated, and in 1849 he came to this city, and became a citizen of Indiana. The certification of his freedom and registration were duly recorded in the proper office of this county.

Soon afterwards he sent for his family, a wife (a free woman) and one infant child. He was more industrious and frugal than the people of his color and class in the free States. His wife, an intelligent Christian woman, was a pattern of industry and economy, for people in his condition in life.

Jack had been a faithful servant up to the time of his liberation, and at the age of twenty-eight, with freedom, in a free State, the prospect of a long life of happiness for him and his wife was exceedingly cheering.

Soon after the passage of the Fugitive Slave Law in 1850, Jack heard rumors through his friends, (for he had friends in Kentucky) that the heirs of his former master, through some quibble of the law of that State, intended to claim a slave and take him back again into bondage. He consulted with his acquaintances here about his safety. He had nothing to fear from a full and fair investigation and just application of the law to the facts of his case; yet from the spirit engendered by that law, and the many outrages perpetrated, even when its forms are attempted to be followed, he apprehended danger.

Finally, the rumors and his apprehensions were verified by the following advertisement in the Evansville Daily Journal, by which the attempt was made to set the bloodhounds upon his track, for the purpose of reducing him again to servitude:

"One Hundred Dollars Reward.—A tall yellow negro, about twenty-seven years of age, has a scar over one eyebrow, and a lively looking man, named Jack May, ran off from Mr. Jack May, in Logan county, Kentucky, about two years ago. He has been in Evansville since, firing for a steam mill, and may now be somewhere in this vicinity. The above reward will be paid for his apprehension and delivery at Eldridge, Kentucky, or for his security at any place where he may be obtained by his owner. Any information may be sent to J. T. Aiken."

But, fortunately, before the advertisement appeared, Jack had gone. He was compelled to flee in flight, leaving his wife and child behind to their beds by sickness, with scanty means, under the care of a hired nurse. I was sent for in the night, to attend at the bedside of the dying wife, to make two requests—first, that I would have her child sent to her mother; and second, that I would see her decently buried. I at once assured her that I would comply.

The faithful wife, smitten down by grief, dying in her dear home, with no friend on earth to console and care for her in her dying hours but the hired nurse—literally bled to death, at the same time a free citizen of a free State, a fugitive and an exile from the "Free Republic of the West," and a man of color, who had been sold into slavery by the same hands that were now endeavoring to sell him into slavery.

But in that chamber of death there was one who could console and comfort all who trust in Him—the Beloved One, dear old Christian heart. He spoke words of consolation, such as mortal lips never uttered. She died in the triumphs of the Christian faith! "Oh," said she, "I am going else home, safe home!" and in a few hours expired. The child died a few days afterwards, and joined the mother in the spirit world.

Free Democratic Meetings.
Meetings will be held, and will be addressed by the individuals designated, as follows:
Aurora.—Sept. 20, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler Oct. 1, O. P. Brown, I. Brynton.
Atwater.—Sept. 20, I. Brynton, O. P. Brown; Oct. 4, T. Earl, W. Barr.
Brimfield.—Sept. 27, O. P. Brown, H. A. Topping; Oct. 9, H. A. Hall, J. W. Tyler.
Charlestown.—Sept. 21, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 6, Albert Austin, H. A. Swift.
Deerfield.—Sept. 30, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard; Oct. 11, T. Earl, H. L. Carter.
Edinburgh.—Sept. 24, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, T. Earl, J. W. Tyler.
Franklin.—Sept. 29, O. Blake, T. W. Browning; Oct. 6, H. A. Hall, I. Brynton.
Freedom.—Sept. 20, W. Barr, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 8, H. A. Swift, I. Brynton.
Hiram.—Sept. 28, A. Topping, H. A. Hall; Oct. 11, J. K. Pickett, O. Blake.
Mouton.—Sept. 24, H. R. P. Spalding; Oct. 9, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty.
Nelson.—Sept. 24, H. H. Willard, H. A. Swift; Oct. 8, L. C. Tod.
Palmyra.—Sept. 18, O. P. Brown, H. S. Doty; Oct. 4, H. L. Carter, T. W. Browning.
McIntoshburgh.—Sept. 22, O. P. Brown, H. H. Willard.
Newport.—Oct. 8, H. A. Hall, Albert Austin.
Gardetsville.—Sept. 27, I. Brynton, A. Topping; Oct. 7, T. Earl, H. A. Swift.
Randolph.—Sept. 28, H. L. Carter, O. Blake; Oct. 8, T. W. Browning, A. Topping.
Rootstown.—Sept. 29, Albert Austin, J. W. Tyler; Oct. 5, H. H. Willard, H. S. Doty.
Shalersville.—Sept. 25, O. P. Brown, H. A. Hall; Oct. 9, I. Brynton, Albert Austin.
Mogadore.—Sept. 24, O. Blake, H. L. Carter.
Streetsborough.—Sept. 28, T. Earl, J. K. Pickett; Oct. 11, O. P. Brown, H. A. Swift.
Windham.—Sept. 23, H. B. Spelman; Oct. 8, O. P. Brown, J. K. Pickett.

THE LADIES ARE INVITED TO ATTEND.
The meetings will commence at 7 o'clock P. M. The speakers named will meet their appointments or secure substitutes.

The Township Executive Committee men, and the friends of the cause, should see to it that none of these meetings are failures for want of notice and due preparation. Handbills, should in all cases be posted up three or four days before each meeting. Blank Handbills, to be filled up for each township